Celebrating 50 Years of Errill Church

This year is the 50th anniversary of the opening of Errill Church and planning is ongoing to mark the occasion.

If you have any memorabilia, photographs etc from the time of the building of the church or its opening, or indeed from celebrations such as weddings, baptisms etc that took place in the church, we would like to use them during some of the events and in a video which we are planning to make.

Please contact the Parish Office.

Photographs can be emailed to rathdowney@ossory.ie or dropped in. We will scan them and return them to you.

Signs of The Times

The Parish Priest of Durrow, Archdeacon Sean O'Doherty has retired after thirty years of service to the people of Durrow and Cullahill.

Bishop Denis Nulty has appointed me to become Administrator of Durrow and Cullahill while still being Parish Priest here in Rathdowney and Errill.

I look forward to this new challenge but of course it means more work and more responsibility.

This appointment will have implications for all of us but as we support each other we will make it work. I ask for your prayers as I take up this new role.

Fr. Martin
